

Ever Faster

Attack In Black

Today I noticed hills of gold I had not seen before, Today I saw a line against the sky I have not seen before.
Holdin' on in powerlines I asked, for birds to keep my thought in place
And above my feed they resonate, sound muffled but immediate.
And oh how the day does blow the way, ever faster.

Tonight I see a dark sad man I have not seen before, Tonight I see two sad lost girls I have not seen before, and below the blackest sky I asked, for them to wander as I mig ht
COULD NOT DISTINGUISH

And oh how the day does blow the way, ever faster.
Ever faster
