

Leather Jacket

Attack In Black

I heard that you began to grow flowers,
I wanna know their names and of their colors,
And for you to tell me how they feel,
there beside each other,
if you kept them warm,
with dirty water,

have you one leather jacket somewhere?
Grey and white with diamonds on your shoulder,

Did i feel you hands,
Suggesting how your hands could feel much warmer
Have you thought to,
Have you thought to,
Keep them in between your legs together,
keep them in between your legs together,
