

Seeds

Attack In Black

Seeds were parting at your touch
Wild fruit were falling from the buds
We parted at the foot of the park and you were gone
Gone

You climbed towers with a broken hand
We taped towels to the window trim
We parted at the foot of the park and you were gone
Gone