

Take Back Compassion

Attack In Black

Are we losing sight of a reason to fight?
Are our sisters still walking the streets late at night?
With that fear in their eyes that can't be disguised
Is it the voice of reason or sexual treason
Our ways have been divided now pleas show me the meaning
For turning our backs on this obvious wrong
Let's take back our song, cause its gone on too long
Are we happy with ourselves?
We're buying everything it sells
Have we lost all that is pure?
Let this song project a cure
Let these buried words of our brothers corrupt
Leave the ashes of love and our sexes conected
In life and death, we love and respect
Our joy is found in the depths of our hearts
Where compassion and union are far from appart
And I won't let it change if we're not the same x4
We're still falling from the days of division
