

Never one to take the blame
Steal my fire but I won't change
Even though you just can't Stay away til you take it all

There's really nothing left to say
Keep dragging me I won't drop names
Your time ran out so you should Stay away you took it all

How did I
Miss the signs I feel so blind
Now it keeps me up at night
How I wish you'd fucking die

I'm saying fuck you, fuck you forever
I think I've finally had enough
Fuck you, thinking you're clever
When you know you never say what you really mean
Your mouth is moving but the lies stay on repeat
I'm saying fuck you, fuck you forever
I hope you fucking die

Never failed to make me sick
Proved that you're so full of shit
Now I know you just wont
Go away till you've had it all

There's really nothing I can do
All the lies point back to you
Pack your fuckin bags and
Go away cause you have it all

How did I
Miss the signs I feel so blind
Now it keeps me up at night
How I wish you'd fucking die

I'm saying fuck you, fuck you forever
I think I've finally had enough
Fuck you, thinking you're clever
When you know you never say what you really mean
Your mouth is moving but the lies stay on repeat
I'm saying fuck you, fuck you forever
I hope you fucking die

I'm saying fuck you, fuck you forever
I think I've finally had enough
Fuck you, thinking you're clever
When know you never say what you really mean
Your mouth is moving but the lies stay on repeat
I'm saying fuck you, fuck you forever
I hope you fucking die
