

Three 6

Attila

Yo, fuck what you heard
This Attila, back with that heavy shit

I am the devil!

If you're down with the devil say hell yeah
Hell yeah!
Learn to forget it and look ahead in the future again
If you're down with the devil say hell yeah
Hell yeah!
Sinning is winning lets start it from the beginning again

Don't forget the reason we're all here
To live our best life
Don't judge me based on your collusion
It's just a god damn lie
When will you see through the bullshit
Opinions equal shit
Let me see your three six!

Go!

If you feel it fucking sing it!

I'm burning down your church like
Six, six, six
Can you smell the fire burning like it's
Six, six, six

If you're down with the devil say hell yeah
Hell yeah!
Learn to forget it and look ahead in the future again
If you're down with the devil say hell yeah
Hell yeah!
Sinning is winning lets start it from the beginning again

I'm burning down your church like
Six, six, six
Can you smell the fire burning like it's
Six, six, six
I'm burning down your church like
Six, six, six
Can you smell the fire burning like it's
Six, six, six

I am the devil!

Will you live a life of indulgence
Will you sit back and watch on the sidelines
Everything is nothing but an illusion
Stop judging us based on your guidelines
Keep your opinions to yourself bitch
Go live your life I'll live with my sins
Take a step back and see your delusion
You live a life based on lies and confusion

If you feel it let me hear it!

I'm burning down your church like
Six, six, six
Can you smell the fire burning like it's
Six, six, six
I'm burning down your church like
Six, six, six
Can you smell the fire burning like it's
Six, six, six

If you're down with the devil say hell yeah
Hell yeah!
