

Timebomb

Attila

Anxiety crippling my mind
All the pressure on my spine
All I ever feel is tick tick
Time bomb

All the demons in my head
Make me wish that I was dead
All ever hear is tick tick
Time bomb

Time bomb
Time bomb

Anxiety crippling my mind
All the pressure on my spine
All I ever feel is tick tick
Time bomb

All the demons in my head
Make me wish that I was dead
All ever hear is tick tick
Time bomb

Take it back
Do you wish that you could take it back?
If you had a second chance
Would you write a different chapter?
Rolling in a raptor lying like an actor
Putting up a front you're appealing to the masses
Now you know what it feels to be alone
No one's buying up your bullshit, shut it down, go home
Now you're left in the dust, legacy turned to rust
Nothing left, you're a low life scumbag

Don't tell me that I'm wrong
You've been here all along
Don't you tell me I'm not

Ticking like a time bomb in my head
Holding the grenade you pulled the pin
It will be over when it counts down
Guess I'll never find a way out
Time bomb

Time bomb

Passive, why you always passive
Livin' in the past now, don't be such an asshole
Not a good look, why you always so shook
Yo, I never did you wrong, don't get it all wrong, yeah

All the times that I put you in the limelight
And you scream and you yell like a cat fight
Then we fight and make up and you gaslight
What's it gonna be for the last time

Don't tell me that I'm wrong

You've been here all along
Don't you tell me I'm not

Ticking like a time bomb in my head
Holding the grenade you pulled the pin
It will be over when it counts down
Guess I'll never find a way out
Time bomb

Anxiety crippling my mind
All the pressure on my spine
All I ever feel is tick tick
Time bomb

All the demons in my head
Make me wish that I was dead
All ever hear is tick tick
Time bomb

Time bomb

Ticking like a time bomb in my head
Holding the grenade you pulled the pin
It will be over when it counts down
Guess I'll never find a way out

Ticking like a time bomb in my head
Holding the grenade you pulled the pin
It will be over when it counts down
Guess I'll never find a way out
