

Unchoose You

Aubrey O'Day

Do I die over you
I like the idea of you
But not the way it feels with you
Why can't there be an option two

Pyromaniac, I like playing with fire
But you take too much pleasure in me burning alive
Tell me why

What if I fall alone?
What if my heart chose wrong?
How do I take control?
How do I unchoose you?
[x2]

How do I unchoose you?
Unchoose you
Unchoose you
How do I unchoose you?
Unchoose you
Unchoose you
Unchoose you
How do I unchoose you?

Could there be a light
Or will only your dark survive
Stripping me of all my life
Prefer your hell to paradise

Wonder when the real me started to hide
And this imposter turned my truth to a lie
Don't know why

What if I fall alone?
What if my heart chose wrong?
How do I take control?
How do I unchoose you?
[x2]

How do I unchoose you?
Unchoose you
Unchoose you
How do I unchoose you?
Unchoose you
Unchoose you
Unchoose you
How do I unchoose you?

Every night with you
I regret in the morning
How empty off me to be so full of you
You're the only option
I shouldn't have chosen
So deep in my veins how can I pull through

How do I unchoose you?
Unchoose you

Unchoose you
How do I unchoose you?
Unchoose you
Unchoose you
Unchoose you
How do I unchoose you?
