

Higher

Audien

Never letting go
Gonna ride the night you know
There's a million reasons, we should be leaving
But the world is moving slow
'Cause baby
As long as you and me got each other we are free
Baby
As long as we're together we will rise

When we leave the ground
Promise me we're never looking down
Take it high, higher
Take it high, higher
Leave it all behind
Hold on to each other as we climb
Take it high, higher
Take it high, higher
Chasing the sky

Chasing the sky
Chasing the sky

Chasing the sky
