

Halfway Decent

Audio Karate

This one dimension of myself
Has hurt the ones I love
And I have come to shut you out
And the God I fear above

And I will make my way
Through the lines drawn on the floor
It goes away so quickly now
But I've been gone before

And everything I do
And everything I say
They come in come conflict
Even as I sing this song today

And I know I've let you down
Please know it's not your fault
