Why you standing all on that couch
If you can't supply me this bounce, try to keep up

If I don't really know you I'm a reset
I got my lane in the game, got my feet wet
I do the body good, did all three steps
That's what I did for my city, IE shit
I'm getting back to it, how I do it niggas hatin' on me
They speaking out of tone at home like they waiting on me
They either bopping or they silent, man they can't confront me
Don't even think to tweet it, if you won't say it to me
Get it back, relevant
These backwoods got me feelin' hella bent
Real God flow is only heaven sent
Pay up never give, you was on in the past
But you talkin' cause it's quiet for your present tense
Nigga stop playing with me, what you saying to me
One call to your broad, have her layin' with me
And don't test it, the last nigga flex got X'd
Cause yo shawty know a nigga got next
Got neck, Got gone
The west is the coast, that's my home
So if you watchin' anything watch your tone
Cause nigga now we on, a fake frienemy's a enemy
And 2015 to infinty is him or me

If I don't really know you I'm a reset
I got my lane in the game, got my feet wet

That's to show you rookies I'm way ahead of my time
Used to think I was cookie when I was clappin' that nine
Now rappers that overlook me, they all worshipping my rhymes
It's all part of the climb, I'm just prayin' that it's genuine
Somebody tell her bring the silverware, dinner plates and the menus in It's time to eat, and if you're reaching for my plate I'll send you in a body bag
So fuck your views and fuck all your opinions
Don't make a nigga hit the reset
I'm progressin' and I don't ever wanna digress
I'm tryna keep me peace yes, but I demand my respect
24 years young and I ain't got no regrets
