

Stay

Audio Push

You still mad at me baby
I got a 100 on it you mad at me right now
I got another 2 that says that I still want you
Looks like you forgot who the fuck I am
And I always did show you baby
Better than I could tell you baby
'Cause I got something you can't duplicate
We got something everybody tried to make
Instead of running like you do and it goes the wrong way

Know you could always stay
Yea you could always stay baby
You know you can stay if you wanna stay
And tonight I think you should stay

We ain't done
Stay 'cause we ain't done (nah)
As soon as shit get deep you try to run
Yea stay like Jodeci in '91
It's early shit we just started having fun, chill
Yea stay like Pretty Ricky in '07
Told me delete your number but I kept it
'Cause you be talking reckless when you mad
We both say hurtful shit
You grab your keys and say goodnight
You speedin' and we beefin'
Silent treatment
Then I hit you
Like bae I miss you
Pull up grind that issue
Make up sex official
Talk about it while we cook a meal
Look at God, He must have took the wheel
Gotta let bygones be bygones
You the only one I let touch my gun
You the only one I bring around my son
Replacement you gon' die trynna find one
Replacement I'mma die trynna find one
And we ain't got no time to waste

So you could always stay
Yea you could always stay baby
You know you can stay if you wanna stay
And tonight I think you should stay

So you could always stay
Yea you could always stay baby
You know you can stay if you wanna stay
And tonight I think you should stay

Every night I pray
That you will be okay
I knew you were my sunshine
My sunshine in a way
So every night I pray
That you will be okay
I knew you were my sunshine

I wish you could have stayed
I wish you could have stayed
I wish you could have stayed
You should have stayed
