

Deliverer

Audrey Assad

You are not possessive, You respect all things
You are not invasive, You have no envy
You are not insistent, You do not force me
You are not controlling, You make me free indeed

You're my deliverer
You're my deliverer
You won't pass me by
You're my deliverer
You're my deliverer
You won't pass me by

Your law is freedom and mercy is Your rule
Though You dwell within me, I can't contain You

You're my deliverer
You're my deliverer
You won't pass me by
You're my deliverer
You're my deliverer
You won't pass me by

In the ruins of my heart, You preach to the poor
Turning over stones to show me there is more
More than all I ask, more than I'm looking for
In the ruins of my heart
In the ruins of my heart, You preach to the poor
Turning over stones to show me there is more
More than all I ask, more than I'm looking for
In the ruins of my heart

You're my deliverer
You're my deliverer
You won't pass me by
You're my deliverer
You're my deliverer
You won't pass me by
You're my deliverer
You're my deliverer
You won't pass me by
You're my deliverer
You're my deliverer
You won't pass me by