Audrevolution

Audrey Horne

When you're down on your knees and your hearts are broken
We never let you down
When you hang by the rope and you're nearly choking
We're coming to your town

I can hear the animals are calling
Scream and shout
City's burning and the sky is falling
Down and down

The way that lead you into the dark

Welcome to the audrevolution
Sing, sing, sing so our constitution

When you're blind and your fear and your hearts go colder
We never let you down
When the weight of the world is upon your shoulder
We're taking you to town

I can feel the holidays are coming
Hold on tight
Water rising and the levees breaking
Through the night

The way they lead you into the dark
(The way they lead you into the dark)
The way they lead you into the endless night of darkness

Welcome to the audrevolution
Sing, sing, sing so our constitution
Welcome to the audrevolution
Sing, sing, sing so our constitution

Welcome to the audrevolution
Sing, sing, sing so our constitution
Welcome to the audrevolution
Sing, sing, sing so our constitution
