

Volcano Girl

Audrey Horne

Miss Volcano, lady rupture
I've been waiting for a burst, cracks beneath your feet,
Yeah I should have noticed
You've been blowing smoke into my face

Now I spend my time waiting for the blow.
Down down underground here fire starts to glow
Volcano girl

Raining fire, falling ashes
I was blinded by the light.
Oh, no, here we go, in a ring of fire, you're my bittersweet eruption girl.

Oooh oh oh oh. Sleep now in the fire.
