

(I didn't cry, but I'm going to now, bye)

Now it's time to meet the bitter end
'Cause I don't want to do this all again
I feel it deeper in my hopelessness
Looking for a place to...

I feel like the breaking type
Scarred from the other lies
I'm now in my grieving soul
Can't fake it anymore
And now I gotta talk to someone
Tell them how I feel
The silence is so loud
Don't understand how I can hear it
Can you hear it?
Oh, I can hear it

Now it's time to meet the bitter end
'Cause I don't want to do this all again
I feel it deeper in my hopelessness
Looking for a place to call home
Cause there's not one thing about my life that I can figure out
I'm ripping pictures of the wall I won without a doubt
Now it's time to meet the bitter end
'Cause I don't want to do this all again

My feelings are black and blue
I'm numb and I can't undo
I'm becoming my sorrow
And I breathe every last part of me
And now I gotta talk to someone
Tell them how I feel
The silence is so loud
Don't understand how I can hear it
Can you hear it?
Oh, I can hear it

Now it's time to meet the bitter end
'Cause I don't want to do this all again
I feel it deeper in my hopelessness
Looking for a place to call home
Cause there's not one thing about my life that I can figure out
I'm ripping pictures of the wall I won without a doubt
Now it's time to meet the bitter end
'Cause I don't want to do this all again

'Cause I don't want this to stop again
'Cause I don't want this to stop again
