

P.S.

Audrey Mika

(Okay, we're just gonna sing, okay?)

Caught in a landslide
Taking me under before you can reach me
I had a feeling things wouldn't go as they should
Missing the big things
Calling can only make up for so much now
Because see it's so different
And now we are farther apart

And everyboy's screaming "hello" in your name
I tell them you were just two doors away
I tell them you're not here anymore
Scattered pictures here on the floor
Here on the floor

So sometimes is it hard to notice
You are unpredictable
Tell me do you miss the dog?
'Cuz she can still smell your coat

One heart can break
Even harder than ten cups that way
Two hearts can break
Even harder than ten cups that day
(Two hearts can break even harder than ten cups)
(Even harder than ten cups)

I cannot reach you
Sometimes the hours get mixed up completely
Miss you like crazy
And now I am falling apart, yeah
Can't think of all of the distance
Somehow we make it all work and for instance
I keep you posted on big things
And now we are farther apart

And now we are closer than we thought
I tell them you were just two doors away
I tell them you're not here anymore
Scattered pictures here on the floor
Here on the floor

So sometimes is it hard to notice
You are unpredictable
Tell me do you miss the dog
'Cuz she can still smell your coat

One heart can break
Even harder than ten cups that way
Two hearts can break
Even harder than ten cups that day
That day, that day, that day

I told ya that I was gonna miss ya
I was gonna miss ya
I was gonna miss ya
