

Saturday Afternoon

Audrey Mika

Taken

I'll tell you I miss you

But what's good in that

I'd rather to see you then have to hold onto the past

We're caught in our memories so we couldn't forget

Yes, I love you but why'd you have to be so far

Yes, I love you but why'd you have to be so far

We're happiest together sounds so cliché

I know that's it's cliché that in every way

Cuz' we made people think we're dating so screw them then and than

Yes, I love you but these miles are tearing me apart

Yes, I love you but these miles are tearing me apart

Caught in motion

Caught in motion

I'll always wait if it's a Saturday afternoon

Cuz' everyone thought we were drunk [?]

I'll never forget it our photo shoots

[?] we always broke our rules

Night and lonely without you

I'll always waited if it's a Saturday afternoon

Afternoon

Afternoon

Noon

I just wanna hug you when I see you sad

My bestfriend, my baby

I'll hug you til' we're fat and old ladies

Fat old ladies

Don't go I'm begging

Honey, a dream

The skyscrapers

Baby, I'm falling

(I don't even know what that sections was, I like it)

I'll always waited if it's a Saturday afternoon

Cuz' everyone thought we were drunk [?]

(We would never)

I'll never forget it our photo shoots

[?] the pocket luck

We always broke our rules (yup)

I am lonely without you

I'll always waited if it's a Saturday afternoon

(Not too shabby)
