

Trst.

Audrey Mika

I thought that you would be here forever
Wishing and waiting for me to get better
I still remember the doors breaking down
I still remember the water cut out
You left a void
That couldn't be filled
Trust me I tried it, it didn't go well
Searching and searching, I asked them all
Trust me I tried you're just dead and gone

Call it an outrage (call it an outrage)
Call it a crisis (call it a crisis)
I need a time out I'm calling SOS
Calling SOS

I don't need you anymore
You're saying things I can't ignore
It's time for an exit
I'm ready to take it
You can't count on me anymore

You always made up the rules
Expecting my love and return
Emotions are senseless
I no longer need this
I'm sorry but you won't be missed

I don't need you anymore
You're saying things I can't ignore
It's time for an exit
I'm ready to take it
You can't count on me anymore

Call it an outrage (call it an outrage)
Call it a crisis (call it a crisis)
I need a time out I'm calling SOS
Calling SOS
Call it an outrage (call it an outrage)
Call it a crisis (call it a crisis)
I need a time out I'm calling SOS
Calling SOS
Call it an outrage (call it an outrage)
Call it a crisis (call it a crisis)
I need a time out I'm calling SOS
Calling SOS, yeah...

Audrey, that's dope
