

I'm not just over thinking you're just not thinking it
I'm just a record playing again
So are we unofficial?
It's so confusing now
I don't understand why you can't talk to me now

And maybe we're the recipe for disaster
And baby, it will hurt when I see you with her
Now it's just sticky icky running through your veins
Yea running through your veins
Running through your veins
Woah, running through your veins...

Would you catch me if I fell in the dark
Would you hold my heart or tear it apart
Cuz 1 - there's not honesty
2 - you're not there for me
You're just a figure of speech

You told me I'm better than nothing
That makes me feel great!
I'm hurting in ways that you could not imagine
Imagine, imagine it
So are we unofficial love?
Unofficial love?
So are we unofficial love?

Everyone's judging us
They wanna help us out
But you don't take no crap from anyone but yourself

And baby we're the recipe for disaster
And maybe it will hurt when I see you with her
Now it's just sticky icky running through your veins
Running through your veins
Running through your veins
Woah, running through your veins
Woah, running through

Would you catch me if I fell in the dark
Would you hold my heart or tear it apart
Cuz 1 - there's not honesty
2 - you're not there for me
You're just a figure of speech

You told me I'm better than nothing
That makes me feel great!
I'm hurting in ways that you could not imagine
Imagine, imagine it
So are we unofficial love?
Unofficial love?
So are we unofficial love?
