

Bruises

AUGUST 08

You try to leave me in the dark
Starting to question who you are
I wish I knew you from the start
Instead I'm only seeing stars

All that ends with me walking
We don't owe each other nothing
Chapters finished I'm down with you
My heart's not broken it's just

Covered in bruises
With so many bruises
Scarred, scarred, scarred, scarred, scarred
Covered in bruises
With so many bruises

I saw the red flags before we could even start
Who dangles love at the cost of a trip to Mars
Your body's calling, a vision, a work of art
As I get closer, Medusa, if you are

All that ends with me walking
We don't owe each other nothing
Chapters finished I'm down with you
My heart's not broken it's just

Covered in bruises
With so many bruises
Scarred, scarred, scarred, scarred, scarred
Covered in bruises
With so many bruises

Scarred
Scarred

Let the car fog up
I can't pass you up
Nah nah, I won't gas you up
'Cause you say you don't need my love
