

Lately (Extended)

AUGUST 08

Lately, we'd been acting like we don't give a fuck
Lately, I've been drinking my feelings off
Up in the bar, we gon' tear it up
Nights like this make things harder

Lately, I'm acting like I'm gon' call you up
Lately, I've been talking like I give a fuck
I'm in my feelings I can't stop tearing up

The only thing real in my life is
The suicide doors on the Lambo
The suicide doors on the Lambo
The suicide doors on the Lambo
The suicide doors on the Lambo

I can't keep my head in the right place for long
They can't have my love, they can't have my trust
Momma told me we won't be hearing this bass for long
I can't keep your love, I can't keep your trust
Sister told me she can't live like this no more
Please don't turn to drugs, all we have is us
I can't keep staring at your face too long

The only thing real in my life is
The suicide doors on the Lambo
The suicide doors on the Lambo
The suicide doors on the Lambo
The suicide doors on the Lambo

Look up into the sky
Those are stars
The satellites
But they don't sound like Gods
