

Separate Ways

AUGUST 08

It hurts because I love you too much
Sad day, I never get what I want
I get the smile with the lies, yeah
I guess that's no surprise, yeah

Lately I've been filling my drinks
You cheat, I cheat, same old thing
Veil across my eyes, yeah
Something don't feel right

Separate, separate
Ooh, go our separate ways
Separate, separate
Separate, separate
Separate, separate
Ooh, go our separate ways
Separate, separate
Separate, separate

Watched
My Goddess turn to stone
Right before my eyes
Right before my eyes

She wore a cloak of armor
No man could penetrate
No man could penetrate

Stole her outta Heaven
Gave her Hollywood feelings with a California figure
Now she's a sex craze
A.O.D. Stripper
Nothing to lose but the crib and the paper
We went too far we should showed her alchemist
Gave alkaline water with Deepak Chopra
We went too far when she pull it, pull it back
We went too far when she pull her, pull her back, yeah

Separate, separate
Ooh, go our separate ways
Separate, separate
Separate, separate
Separate, separate
Ooh, go our separate ways
Separate, separate
Separate, separate
Separate, separate
