Baby, I love you when you wear your sundress 'cause you're so blessed
And when you do, girl, I gotta confess, I be hopeless
I wish you could see all the dirty little thoughts running through my mind
All the time
'Cause baby, you're so fine

I'm tryna see if I can get you all alone, girl
You call up on your homegirls
Tell 'em that you're staying home, girl
But you won't, girl
Dinner and a show
Lemme know any place you wanna go
Know that I'ma get you there, girl
Whenever you want, baby, I ain't tryna waste your time
Tell if you got a place in mind
It can be anywhere you like (Oh-oh-oh)

Just say, "Go, go, go"
And I will be ready to go, go, go
All you gotta do is tell me the direction
And you ain't never gotta question
Know that I'll be good to go, go, go
Go-go-go

Are you looking for walk on a beach? Yeah
Whatever you need
All I gotta see is you and I'm speechless
Girl, you do that to me
I just wanna be where you are, I wanna follow your lead
We don't have to go very far

I'm tryna see if I can get you all alone, girl
You call up on your homegirls
Tell 'em that you're staying home, girl
But you won't, girl
Dinner and a show
Lemme know any place you wanna go
Know that I'ma get you there, girl
Whenever you want, baby, I ain't tryna waste your time
Tell if you got a place in mind (Place in mind)
It can be anywhere you like (Oh-oh-oh)

Just say, "Go, go, go"
And I will be ready to go, go, go
All you gotta do is tell me the direction
And you ain't never gotta question
Know that I'll be good to go, go, go
Go-go-go

And I will be ready to go, go, go
