Dear Chay

Seems like it was just the other day, you was a baby
In my arms and soon you gon' be all grown and it's so crazy
I wish I could turn back the clock
Or better yet make it stop
And give you all that I've got
Like every guy's gonna tell you that you're beautiful
Remember I would tell you first, so it ain't new to you
I know in a while, it's gon' be hard for me to get through to you
You gon' think that you know it all
But that ain't gon' be the truth
I'ma always be there for you
Love and care for you
Treat you so royal
Highly gon spoil you
Long as you do what you're supposed to do
Give it everything you got, it's cool
I will try to give you every tool
At my disposal, it's alright you
You gon' know what kinda road to chose
Your decision, gon' be up to you
In a flash you gonna look up
You gon' be out there on your own
Hearin' me love
Hope whatever I teach will stick
In the moment, you feel it's dumb
Don't be wantin' you feelin' like your mom and dad ain't here with y'all
That you out here alone
I need that to be clear to you

Sincerely

I love you with everything in me
PS, I hope that you feel me
Hope you know I got you
Without a doubt in my heart
Yours truly

Dear Amaya

I know sometimes how you feel overlooked, because you quiet
I used to be the same as you when I was younger
When I was hurt and I would keep it all inside
'Till it burned me up and turned into a fire
It's okay, to tell someone when your heart breaks
Trust in me, promise that I won't betray you
We all need, need somebody to confide in
And a shoulder we can lean on Safe space, you can cry in
In these arms, I got you
Want you to know how proud you make me, with your schoolin'
Anything that you wanna be in this life, know you gon' do it
Not even the sky is the limit
He's gonna say that you want it
You gotta go out and get it
I can't wait to see the women you turn out to be
It ain't a moment you're alive, you ain't impressin' me
I really hope that I can bless you, how you're blessin' me
You just put your trust in God and put the rest in me

Sincerely

I love you with everything in me

PS, I hope that you feel me

Hope you know I got you

Without a doubt in my heart

Dear Kay-kay

What can I say, say, say?

Ever since your first day

It's like you've been here before

Wiser beyond your days

Truly you move to the beat of your own drum

And your own parade

I know when life gets tough, that you're gonna be okay

You keep a smile on your face, even on the darkest days

Even with an ounce off your strength, I can face a hurricane

And with a face just like mine, when you cry I feel your pain

And I try to hug it away

So that you ain't feelin' the same

Use your voice to sing, every melody

Fill it up with the joy you bring

Big things are done, so you gon' do greater things

Take your time young princess

One day you'll be a queen

You're so special, hope you know I'm here for you

I got so much love to give, I'll share with you

Stay who you are, don't let no one dim your star

Take it from me, another one who understands you

Sincerely

I love you with everything in me

PS, I hope that you feel me

Hope you know I got you

Without a doubt in my heart

Yours truly
