

Climb

Augustana

Just when I thought it was over
I feel it coming again
I know I can't control it
I think you understand

I'm not broken
I'm a little too tired to fight
I keep hoping
I wake up on the other side

'Cause I've been down
Sometimes I don't know who I am at all
I know somehow
That no matter how far I fall

I'll always climb up climb up climb up for you
Climb up up up for you
I'll always climb up climb up climb up for you
Climb up up up for you

I hope you know that I'm happy
I miss you when I'm alone
I don't know when it'll happen
Sometimes I feel like it won't

I'm not broken
I'm a little too tired to fight
And I keep hoping
I wake up on the other side

'Cause I've been down
Sometimes I don't know who I am at all
I know somehow
That no matter how far I fall

I'll always climb up climb up climb up for you
Climb up up up for you
I'll always climb up climb up climb up for you
Climb up up up for you

I'm not broken
I'm a little too tired to fight
And I keep hoping
I wake up on the other side

'Cause I've been down
Sometimes I don't know who I am at all
I know somehow
That no matter how far I fall

I'll always climb up climb up climb up for you
Climb up up up for you
I'll always climb up climb up climb up for you
Climb up up up for you
