heavy.

Au/Ra

If I had a glow stick strong enough
You know I would use it, but I don't
You have a facing, I feel it in your hands
You're holdin' the pieces, but I can't

I'm too heavy, can't you see I take us both down?
I'm too heavy, you should've let go of me, let go of me
I'm too heavy, can't carry, I take us both down
I'm too heavy, you should've let go of me, I'm too heavy

My face is purple now from bottling up
Glass would shatter if we touched
Throw your pieces at me
I can't fixate, you start crumbling
'Cause no one can, only you

I'm too heavy, can't you see I take us both down?
I'm too heavy, you should've let go of me, let go of me
I'm too heavy, can't carry, I take us both down
I'm too heavy, you should've let go of me, I'm too heavy

Waiting, stop, waiting, stop, waiting for help
Waiting, stop, waiting, you can't help me, save yourself
I'm too heavy

I'm too heavy, can't you see I take us both down?
I'm too heavy, you should've let go of me, let go of me
I'm too heavy, can't carry, I take us both down
I'm too heavy, you should've let go of me, I'm too heavy
