

Ultraviolet

Au/Ra

I should cover up, wear my sunscreen
'Cause anyone can see your light is blinding
You're dangerous, when you reach out
And factor fifty might not be enough now

You could do me some damage
I should run for shade
But I can't look, I can't look away

You're ultraviolet
You're bloody high to paint behind it
I don't know if I can survive it
You're ultraviolet
On my skin, let the burn begin

Oh, you made your mark, I've been sunkissed
Now if these freckles faded, they'd be so missed
So don't say you'll try just to protect me
'Cause love is only worth it when it's deadly

Come on, do me some damage
Don't you see that's okay?
'Cause you're not, no, you're not to blame

You're ultraviolet
You're bloody high to paint behind it
I don't know if I can survive it
You're ultraviolet
On my skin, let the burn begin

(Burn begin, burn begin, burn begin)
(Oh, let the burn begin, burn begin, burn begin)
Burn begin
La la la la hmm
La la la la hmm

You're ultraviolet
You're bloody high to paint behind it
I don't know if I can survive it
You're ultraviolet
On my skin, let the burn begin

(Burn begin, burn begin, burn begin)
(Oh, let the burn begin, burn begin, burn begin)
Burn, burn, burn (Oh, let the burn begin, burn begin, burn begin)
Burn, burn, burn (Burn begin, burn begin, burn begin)
So let the burn begin, burn begin, burn begin
So let the burn begin, burn begin, burn begin
(Let the burn begin)
So let the burn begin, burn begin, burn begin
So let the burn begin, burn begin, burn begin
