

X Games

Au/Ra

The games begin when the gun clicks
Where the fresh meet hopeless new romantics
They crane their necks from the skybox
But it's just us when we take the gloves off

No, I don't, no, I don't wanna hurt you
But I'm holdin' my breath and it's your move
No, I don't, no, I don't wanna hurt you
But I might just have to

All these blue takes on my shadow screen
Guess it's fair play, now we're in the X Games
Getting fatter lips in this car seat, what can I say?
Now we're in the X Games, the X Games
Oh, now we're in the X Games, the X Games
Oh, now we're in the X Games

We level up and wipe out,
It's no wonder we don't let our guards down,
But there's no cheap call if we want this
Fairytale ship, gotta run the gauntlet

No, I don't, no, I don't wanna hurt you
But I'm holdin' my breath and it's your move
No, I don't, no, I don't wanna hurt you
But I might just have to

All these blue takes on my shadow screen
Guess it's fair play, now we're in the X Games
Getting fatter lips in this car seat, what can I say?
Now we're in the X Games, the X Games
Oh, now we're in the X Games, the X Games
Oh, now we're in the X Games

Are you ally or enemy?
'Cause the suspense is killin' me
Are you ally or enemy?
'Cause the suspense is killin' me

All these blue takes on my shadow screen
Guess it's fair play, now we're in the X Games
Getting fatter lips in this car seat, what can I say?
Now we're in the X Games, the X Games
Oh, now we're in the X Games, the X Games
Oh, now we're in the X Games
Now we're in the X Games
