

Helios

Auri

From beneath the world you rose
The glitter of dew inspiring those
Who rise to see your triumph
The head of the rose sleepy turns
Helios, Helios, Helios
The song of Sulis is your own

Helios, Helios, Helios
Into the sea you slowly glide
Your rusty crown you cannot hide
And animals pause, and change their plans tonight
As the dark now flickers
Helios, Helios, Helios
With never-ending lullabies

Helios
Helios, Helios
Helios

It's you who kissed the summer showers
Helios, Helios, Helios
You are billions and you are one
Helios, Helios, Helios
The song of Sulis is yours

You are billions
You are billions, you are one
You are billions
You are billions, you are one
You are billions
You are billions, you are one
Helios, you are one
Helios, Helios
Helios, Helios
Helios, Helios
Helios, Helios
Helios, Helios
Helios, Helios
Helios, Helios
