

Shieldmaiden

Auri

This cellar a home for a sleeping Cinderella
The sweetness of silence, at the edge of forever
No longer a human but dweller of the stars
A bauble of memory, engraved in it their hurt

Deep lies the last of her left behind
Shieldmaiden in the night of human mind
See and remember her
The girl next door

Thousands of winters turned spring eve in her eyes
Away from darkness where she alone gave light
We leave you to sleep now, in sanguine silence no more
And hope for the world to know your unsung story

Deep lies the last of her left behind
Shieldmaiden in the night of human mind
See and remember her
The girl next door

Deep lies the last of her left behind
Shieldmaiden in the night of human mind
See and remember her
The girl next door

Deep lies the last of her left behind
Shieldmaiden in the night of human mind
See and remember her
The girl next door
