

The Long Walk

Auri

Gravel road
Far reaching sky
No sleep tonight
We walk a lonely pilgrim
Parade of plight

One more step before I yield
My life for this journey
Take my name and carve it on
A heart stone or a memory

Netherworld
Our tears collect
For the longest walk
Withheld from life
From years we left hollow

One more step before I yield
My life for this journey
Take my name and carve it on
A heart stone or a memory

One more step before I yield
All of life I yearn to feel
One more step for those who fell
If go I must I shall go well
One more step to fabled farm
One more step...
