Away

Auryn

There's no time to say how much I need you.
I still try to call your name and hear you.

No, I can't even speak.
I'm not able to breathe
and I will have to find a way to admit that you are gone.

Going back, to the time of our story.
To the days you keep on saying
you'll always love me.
And I say, right now, the truth:
you left a broken hearted man
and no chance to say goodbye.
You've gone, away.

Used to dream of further destinations.
Never thought the end of our connection.

I was strong and I now I feel so weak.
I can't carry on, I can't do it alone.

Going back, to the time of our story.
To the days you keep on saying
you'll always love me.
And I say, right now, the truth:
and no chance to say goodbye.

Can't stop still missing you.
Go back to the start.

Going back, to the time of our story.
To the days you keep on saying
you'll always love me.
And I say, right now, the truth:
and no chance to say goodbye.
(I gotta let you go)
You've gone, away.
