

Let It Be Unsaid

Auryn

I'm really feeling but there is nothing to do
'Cause the time I had with you, I can't get back
And it is long ago now
But I will never be able to let you go of my life

So when I saw you last night at that party
You were dancing the same way
And I feel like I was [?] back in time
And we were young and reckless

With a future in front of us
Didn't know 'bout the things that was ahead
And I can't seem to figure out
If I should speak or let it be unsaid

Let it be unsaid
What if I just wanna forget?
If I should speak or let it be unsaid

Love's in the air and you cannot deny
That you and me together is real
Although we're over now
I still feel young when I'm with you right here

So when I saw you last night at that party
You were dancing the same way
And I feel like I was [?] back in time
And we were young and reckless

With a future in front of us
Didn't know 'bout the things that was ahead
And I can't seem to figure out
If I should speak or let it be unsaid

What if I just wanna forget?
If I should speak or let it be unsaid
