

Changed Everything

Austin Burke

Baby, I never leave I'm sorry unsaid
And I'm done letting freedom mess with my head
Now I only go out one night a week
Think more before I speak
Stopped letting whiskey put me to bed

Baby, I changed for the better
Got my shit together
Like you always wanted me to
I'm a little less screw up
A little more grew up
Since I messed it up with you
I can't take back your last goodbye
And the good Lord knows I've tried
'Cause, baby, I've changed everything
But your mind

Baby, you got your reasons, and I know why
And you, you can't say you didn't try
Now I'm here trying to make right what I made wrong
It took me too long, and now you're gone
But, girl, if you saw me, you'd be surprised

Baby, I changed for the better
Got my shit together
Like you always wanted me to
I'm a little less screw up
A little more grew up
Since I messed it up with you
I can't take back your last goodbye
And the good Lord knows I've tried
'Cause, baby, I've changed everything
But your mind

And I know it's too little, too late with you
But if I ever find somebody new Girl, I'll owe it all to you

'Cause, baby, I changed for the better
Got my shit together
Like you always wanted me to
I'm a little less screw up
A little more grew up
Since I messed it up with you
I can't take back your last goodbye
And the good Lord knows I've tried
'Cause, baby, I've changed everything
But your mind
