

Crazy, Crazy

Austin Burke

I'm crazy for trying, I'm crazy for crying
And I'm crazy for loving you
C-c-c-crazy

Ain't it crazy how
In a one horse town
Everybody finds out
When you're losing your mind

I've been staying in drinking, over thinking
Hoping that my phone starts ringing
And that it's gonna be you
Girl, to tell you the truth

I'm going
Crazy, crazy, crazy over you
The crazy part is how you fell so fast for someone new
Crazy, crazy, guess that's my new name
The thought of you with someone else
Is driving me insane

C-c-c-crazy, I'm crazy for feeling so lonely
C-c-c-crazy

I saw him driving a Lexus
Looking like daddy's money from Texas
Tell me baby, does he know who your ex is?
Does he know the guy that bought you the necklace?
That you're wearing, I swear that I'm tearing this whole town down
Striking a match at the gas station right now
If I'm going eighty, how long will it take me?
To get to your place, look you straight in the face and just say I'm

Crazy, crazy, crazy over you
The crazy part is how you fell so fast for someone new
Crazy, crazy, guess that's my new name
The thought of you with someone else
Is driving me insane

C-c-c-crazy, I'm crazy for feeling so lonely
C-c-c-crazy, crazy for feeling so blue

Ain't it crazy how
In a one horse town
Everybody finds out

I'm going
Crazy, crazy, crazy over you
The crazy part is how you fell so fast for someone new
Crazy, crazy, guess that's my new name
The thought of you with someone else
Is driving me insane

C-c-c-crazy, I'm crazy for feeling so lonely
C-c-c-crazy, crazy for feeling so blue
