

Heavy

Austin George

You know I still want it
I always will there's no hiding from it
My tired eyes couldn't watch you leaving
Need dr. Phil to change what you believe in Cause you act like you don't see it

But the truth is things ain't alright
Long texts lead to long nights
Need a timeout and quiet time
Caring too much gets tiring I'm tired

It's been
Heavy times
Have you even noticed my absence
Cause I been still so lost
It's been
Heavy times
Have you noticed it's not the same since
It's not the same at all, it's been

Troublin
Cause you act like you're above it
And you're goin out every weekend
Cause you're out lookin for meaning
While I lose my mind for hours after hours after hours
When I talk you roll your eyes roll your eyes roll your eyes

But the truth is things ain't alright
Long texts lead to long nights
Need a timeout and quiet time
Caring too much gets tiring I'm tired

It's been
Heavy times
Have you even noticed my absence
Cause I been still so lost
It's been
Heavy times
Have you noticed it's not the same since
It's not the same at all, it's been

Have you noticed it's not the same since
It's not the same at
It's not the same at all, it's been
