

Manners

Austin George

I can tell you got manners
But when you alone with me, it don't matter
Superstar, wanna put you on camera
On top, you my favorite view, ooh-ooh, ooh
Yeah, I know you got manners
Closed curtain when we fucking in the Phantom
Superstar, wanna put you on camera
On top, you my favorite view, ooh-ooh, ooh

Yeah, can't deny these feelings, they stronger than Hulk Hogan
Said we wasn't movin' too fast, now that's over
Now we hiding shit from your friends, ain't no postin', oh
Yeah, I'ma do whatever you say, I won't argue
You don't need nobody to play 'cause you ball too
Wanna take you back to the south and show you my roots

Oh, woah
Play it nice, but late at night, I know that's not who you are
It's different after dark

I can tell you got manners
But when you alone with me, it don't matter
Superstar, wanna put you on camera
On top, you my favorite view, ooh-ooh, ooh
Yeah, I know you got manners

Yeah, deep down, we one and the same
But on the outside, you used to playin' a saint
I showed you things you ain't tried, I made you this way
You showed me things you can't buy with money and fame
You like to hide that shit of you and baby, that's fine
I'ma keep it to myself in the meantime
You workin' hard, baby, let me take the weight off
Just tryna keep your legs wide and your tears dry

Oh, woah
Play it nice, but late at night, I know that's not who you are
It's different after dark

I can tell you got manners
But when you alone with me, it don't matter
Superstar, wanna put you on camera
