

My Sweet

Austin George

It's a silent code
Ain't no need to speak on what's already known
She the reason why I got this smile of gold
Something like an angel, what you tend to be

And it's 'bout time
Every time I see your face, I get thrown in
If there's some way I could change, let me know it
I ain't know how love felt, showed me what it was Now I need you more and more, it ain't slowing

Oh, oh, my sweet
Won't you, won't you come for me, babe?
Can't you see that I'm weak?
Don't you, don't you know you're my peace right now?
Oh, oh, my love
It's been, it's been long enough, babe
I've been blue as these jeans
Won't you, won't you come for me?

Won't you dress it up nice, like them old times
Feel the love, feel again, it's been a long ride
Said you some time and suddenly my name's time
You can call me what you want
If I can call you mine

Grew up not feeling sane, but you saw it through
You don't like nobody else, that's why I like you
Can I see you maybe just tonight
Or every night, is every night cool?

Oh, oh, my sweet
Won't you, won't you come for me, babe?
Can't you see that I'm weak?
Don't you, don't you know you're my peace right now?
Oh, oh, my love
It's been, it's been long enough, babe
I've been blue as these jeans
Won't you, won't you come for me?

Won't you, won't you come for
Ay, alright, alright, alright baby

Oh, oh, my sweet
Won't you, won't you come for me, babe?
Can't you see that I'm weak?
Don't you, don't you know you're my peace right now?
Oh, oh, my love
It's been, it's been long enough, babe
I've been blue as these jeans
Won't you, won't you come for me?

Oh, oh, my sweet
Won't you, won't you come for me, babe?
Can't you see that I'm weak?
Don't you, don't you know you're my peace right now?
Oh, oh, my love

It's been, it's been long enough, babe
I've been blue as these jeans
Won't you, won't you come for me?
