

Deep End

Austin Mahone

You nervous?

No, put your hands around me, Jack

Now we've been right here for a minute
Thinkin' 'bout those eyes 'round me, 'round me
Now we both found love, now we're in it
Caught up in your tide, drowning, drowning

Cause I've been thinking while I'm sinking
Body sinking, your wave I'm riding
No debating while we're making
Ain't no breaking when we're colliding

Oh no, no
No need to be shy, girl
We're going in the deep end
I'm swimming into you, you
I'm drowning into you, you
In the deep, wanna dive, any night, any day
I'm drowning in your love, I can't breathe
I'm swimming into you, you
I'm drowning into you, you

I'm going down on you like Titanic
We can rock the boat, I'm Jack, you're Rose
The people run around in a panic
While we just stay right here, getting wet and soaked

Cause I've been thinking while I'm sinking
Body sinking, your wave I'm riding
No debating while we're making
Ain't no breaking when we're colliding

Oh no, no
No need to be shy, girl
We're going in the deep end
I'm swimming into you, you
I'm drowning into you, you
In the deep, wanna dive, any night, any day
I'm drowning in your love, I can't breathe
I'm swimming into you, you
I'm drowning into you, you

Let it play, man

Oh no, no
No need to be shy, girl
We're going in the deep end
I'm swimming into you, you
I'm drowning into you, you
In the deep, wanna dive, any night, any day
I'm drowning in your love, I can't breathe
I'm swimming into you, you
I'm drowning into you, you

I'm swimming, baby
I'm drowning

Don't worry, we'll be alright
