

Here We Go Again

Austin Williams

Don't know if I love you or just love the pain
Playing with fire leaves me out in the rain
Going in circles girl going insane, going insane
We've been down this road
Where it stops nobody knows

Here we go again
Now it's 2AM and your calling my phone
I shouldn't let you in
But either way I'm waking up alone
It's like deja vu, me and you, we were both made to lose
We know how this ends
But here we go again, yeah yeah
Here we go again

Cannot pick up yeah I can't put you down
Can't stand these nights girl when you're not around
Even though you leave my heart on the ground
Can't think about that now cause

Here we go again
Now it's 2AM and your calling my phone
I shouldn't let you in
But either way I'm waking up alone
It's like deja vu, me and you, we were both made to lose
We know how this ends
But here we go again, yeah yeah
Here we go again

We've been down this road
Where is stops nobody knows
We've been down this road
We know how this goes

Here we go again
Now it's 2AM and your calling my phone I shouldn't let you in
But either way I'm waking up alone
It's like deja vu, me and you, we were both made to lose
We know how this ends
But here we go again, yeah yeah
Here we go again
