

Wrong Truck

Austin Williams

That rumor was a rumor 'til you walked up in here
Got this Titos and Sprite, Crown whiskey tears true
Staring me down, girl, you made it so clear
You're a little more over me than I thought you'd be

You came to the right bar at the right time
Got the right neon look in your eyes
Making all your right moves in the spotlight
Now everybody sees that it ain't you and me
Whispering them words, that they don't know you say
Headed for the parking lot, can only mean one thing
You came to the right bar at the right time
Girl, I hate to see it but you're leaving in the wrong truck tonight
(Wrong truck, wrong truck tonight, yeah)
(Wrong truck, wrong truck)

Yeah, it's the wrong cab that you're climbing in Everything that daddy's money bought and you bought on it
Already know now, soon as you get home
You'll be under him, wondering how it went so wrong

You came to the right bar at the right time
Got the right neon look in your eyes
Making all your right moves in the spotlight
Now everybody sees that it ain't you and me
Whispering them words, that they don't know you say
Headed for the parking lot, can only mean one thing
You came to the right bar at the right time
Girl, I hate to see it but you're leaving in the wrong truck tonight
(Wrong truck, wrong truck tonight, yeah)
(Wrong truck, wrong truck tonight)
(Wrong truck, wrong truck tonight, yeah)
(Wrong truck, wrong truck)

You came to the right bar at the right time
Got the right neon look in your eyes
Making all your right moves in the spotlight
