AUSTN

It's too late for making empty promises
I try to pull back but suddenly I'm falling it
Another white noise is drowning out the obvious
That we're all made for each other even though we're polar opposites

Don't know how you got me feeling so high
Two AM, I'm running all these red lights
Tryna get to your place, feeling tongue-tied
But it's alright, don't leave me out in the cold

'Cause this fire in my chest
Is beating like a drum with no regrets
And you just wanna take till nothing's left
The feeling of my skin is in your head
Like this air in my lungs
With every breath I take, I'm burning up
And you know that I'll never get enough
'Cause I don't wanna live without your touch

Without your touch

I know we swore that we'd never do this again
And now I'm throwing rocks at your window, saying, "Baby, won't you let me in?"
Don't think twice, I'll make time just for your love, 'cause you know
I'm a real one, won't give you up, nah, even though we're polar opposites

Don't know how you got me feeling so high
Two AM, I'm running all these red lights
Tryna get to your place, feeling tongue-tied
But it's alright, don't leave me out in the cold

'Cause this fire in my chest
Is beating like a drum with no regrets
And you just wanna take till nothing's left
The feeling of my skin is in your head
Like this air in my lungs
With every breath I take I'm burning up
And you know that I'll never get enough
'Cause I don't wanna live without your touch

Without your touch
Without your touch

Don't know how you got me feeling so high
Two AM, I'm running all these red lights
Tryna get to your place, feeling tongue-tied
But it's alright, don't leave me out in the cold
Out in the cold

'Cause this fire in my chest
Is beating like a drum with no regrets
And you just wanna take till nothing's left
The feeling of my skin is in your head
Like this air in my lungs
With every breath I take I'm burning up
And you know that I'll never get enough

'Cause I don't wanna live without your touch

Without your touch
Without your touch
Without your touch
