

All I Wanted

Austra

It doesn't matter what you say to me
'Cause I'm leaving tomorrow
It doesn't matter if you're sorry now
'Cause I'm leaving tomorrow

You fucked it up, what you did to me
You fucked it up, when you lied to me
And all I wanted was your love

It doesn't matter if you're sorry now
'Cause I'm leaving tomorrow
It doesn't matter who you care about
'Cause I'm leaving tomorrow

You fucked it up when you went away
You fucked it up, you won't sleep with me
When all I wanted was your love
Your love
Your love
Mhm

Tell me baby, why did you lie?
Tell me baby, why, why did you lie?

It's what you did when you secretly called her
You went out on a date and you lied to me
Well, I checked your phone
Even though I saw it in motion, baby
Motion, baby
Motion, baby
Motion, baby

All I wanted was your love
All I wanted was your love
All I wanted was your love
All I wanted was your love

All I wanted was your love
All I wanted was your love
