

A Change In The Tide

Authority Zero

I think it's time for a good old dance off
Fuckin' right!

There's a time and a place with the broken tones
Tell's a tale of defeat and of self control
Where the heart goes weak
And you've lost it all
There nothing left but to surrender
Someone please tell me how to control
My fear is devoid I'm sure no one knows
Only flashing lights
Toss and turn
These the sleepless nights, what dreams are made of

Can't seem to leave it alone
Tossing and turning again
Can't scream enough no one knows

You've been trapped deep inside your head
And it feels like a vice as the pendulum; swings
Sways to the beat of your every move
You can hardly breathe through the words unspoken
Conversations are haunting you
You've lost all hope and don't have a clue
No one understands and no one listens
Back to your thoughts into submission

The next move
The way out
The vultures circle again
Locked inside
Hear the sounds

Because we both know
What we've built is strong
And the ties they bind us all together
Where we've lost our way
And the times they have changed
Can it all be fixed under pressure
Under pressure
Realize when it's broken
And you can't seem to find your way out
When the words left unspoken
Come back to haunt you
It's got you stuck in self doubt

There's a time and a place with the broken tones
Tell's a tale of defeat and of self control, yeah
Somethings going on
Somethings going on
You've been trapped deep inside your head
And it feels like a vice as the pendulum swings
Nothing's too far gone

Yeah, we both know
What we've built is strong
And the ties they bind us all together

Where we've lost our way
And the times they have changed
Can it all be fixed under pressure
Yeah, cause we both know
Relieve the pressure
Yeah cause we both know
Relieve the pressure
Yeah, cause we both know
Relieve the pressure
And the ties they bind us all together
