

Bayside

Authority Zero

Wake me up
Well it's a new day breaking
It's been a long one let's just face it
You're holding on but the walls are shaking
This could be it
Could be yours for the taking
We always seem to be living for tomorrow
If you could clear your head and just swallow
Our time here is all just borrowed
So let me see

Just take a deep breath and count to three
All that matter is what steps are willingly
What's your next play
What should you say
'Cause I don't know quite honestly

Just take a deep breath and count to three
All that matter is what steps are willing to be
What's your next play
What should you say
'Cause I don't know quite honestly

But there comes a time when the truth gets in the way
And you face the awful ugliness at bay
And you tell yourself
Hey self it's not ok
Yeah there comes a time when the truth gets in the way

Let's face facts
Yeah you're barely alive
Come to think of it you're practically dead inside
It's no suprise you don't fear it
So as long as you can hear it's calling out

I'll tell you what I don't know what's worse
Drowning out here or dying thirst
Take a deep breath
Count it
1 2 3
Take a look around and walls are all I see

Wake me up
Well it's a new day breaking
It's been a long one let's just face it
Hold on 'cause the walls are shaking
This could be it
Could be yours for the taking

But there comes a time when the truth gets in the way
And you face the awful ugliness at bay
And you tell yourself
Hey self it's not ok
Yeah there comes a time when the truth gets in the way
There comes a time when the truth gets in the way

Yet there comes a time when the truth gets in the way (truth gets in the way

)
And you face the awful ugliness at bay (at bay)
And you tell yourself
Hey self it's not ok (it's not ok)
Yeah there comes a time when the truth gets in the way
There comes a time when the truth gets in
There comes a time when the truth gets in
There comes a time when the truth gets in the way
