

Derailed

Authority Zero

As a matter of fact
I'm signing off
Just like you did
But my head's not lost
I'm still here
And I still truly care
Unlike the rest
There's still some hope in here

A weary face that's beaten to the bone
A flashing light that passes by
Could be your new home
Take a glance
And stop running right in place
Opportunities grow further
And further away

Cause I don't know
And you don't care
What's going on
Around here
So pack your bags
The choice is clear
Don't miss the train
As it rides near

I thought I'd let you know
There's so much more
Beyond all that the eye can see
Knocking at your door
I'm not even sure you're listening
But if you are
Don't you miss a single thing

Cause I don't know
And you don't care
What's going on
Around here
So pack your bags
The choice is clear
Don't miss the train
As it rides near

Where are we going?
(We don't care, we don't care)
I just know there's something out there
(Something out there, something out there)
Where are we going?
(We don't care, we don't care)
There's a future that you'd never dared

So don't miss the train
Don't miss the train

Cause I don't know
And you don't care
What's going on

Around here
So pack your bags
The choice is clear
Don't miss the train
