

Beautiful Disaster

Autograph

We, we're gonna throw it all away
The walls were tumbling down
And we were in each other's way
Fate is something we create
And when I crossed your lines
You slap me in the face

Alright, what's your vision
It's time to make a decision
Hold tight, risky mission
Too late, it's a collision

We knew when we started to fly
That both of us were victims of a fatal attraction
Who thought it would turn out all right
Since you and I became a beautiful disaster

Now this ain't no time to run
The best is yet to come
There's nothing to regret
We were always on the edge
We never made a pledge
The two of us were one

Are we stuck with each other
I don't want you with another
I can't take this any longer
I give up, it's getting stronger

We knew when we started to fly
That both of us were victims of a fatal attraction
Who thought it would turn out all right
Since you and I became a beautiful disaster
We knew when we started to fly
That both of us were victims of a fatal attraction
Who thought it would turn out all right
Since you and I became a beautiful disaster

We knew when we started to fly
That both of us were victims of a fatal attraction
Who thought it would turn out all right
Since you and I became a beautiful disaster
We knew when we started to fly
That both of us were victims of a fatal attraction
Who thought it would turn out all right
Since you and I became a beautiful disaster

A beautiful disaster
A beautiful disaster
