

The coldness of the tiles
Soften my delirium into a smile
I feel it in my bones
An aching I can no longer put into words
See, all I ever wanted
Was some salvation here
My greatest mistake
Was waking up

I don't know now
Was it all worth the while?
I need my back-up file
To make a correction
Eradicate all the wrong
I broke myself in two

Beyond the gravity
I swear I would crash right on through this bathroom floor
I don't have the strength
To pose as a saint

I don't know now
Was it all worth the while?
I need my back-up file
To make a correction
Eradicate all the wrong
I broke myself in two

Hit my mum, hit my daddy
Hit the loner in the alley
Hit us all, me and you and him and her
Suck us in like a vacuum
Spit us out like old chewing gum
In truth there is nothing here at all

Hit my mum, hit my daddy
Hit the loner in the alley
Hit us all, me and you and him and her
Suck us in like a vacuum
Spit us out like old chewing gum
In truth there is nothing here at all

I don't know now
Was it all worth the while?
I need my back-up file
To make a correction
Eradicate all the wrong
I broke myself in two
