

Foolishly Wrong

Autoheart

I feel it: incision
The deepest precision
You keep me up all night
Don't get me involved in
Your petty resolving
I won't put up that fight
I know that this violence we suffer in silence
Is a result of our counter-productive ways
Your heartache, my headache
Is something we can't shake
We're in the red all round

So tell me darling
Is there anything that we can do?
I see the future
But we're not in it together
Once irrepressible
We used to be inseparable
There's something here I'm missing
And now we need to let it all go
We're living a lie, indivisible by
Everything we try
I need you to know
If we carry this on
We'd be foolishly wrong
And we'd end up alone

Is that what you're scared of Ending up on your own?
Cause if you are, then don't
Our love is bulimic, infected, endemic
And I just don't want that
Disaster awaits us
It threatens to break us
And I believe we're destroying each other
A second opinion from someone else
A minion'll
Do us no damn good

So tell me darling
Is there anything that we can do?
I see the future
But we're not in it together
Once irrepressible
We used to be inseparable
There's something here I'm missing
Now we need to let it all go
We're living a lie, indivisible by

We'd be foolishly wrong

In the end
We'd end up alone
We'd end up alone
We'd end up alone
In the end
We'd end up alone
We'd end up alone
We'd end up alone
I-I-in the end
We'd end up alone
We'd end up alone
We'd end up alone
In the end
We'd end up alone
We'd end up alone
We'd end up alone

We're living a lie, indivisible by
If we carry this on
'Cause we're living a lie, indivisible by Everything that we try
If we carry this on
